

CLOUD AND VISION

His Hercules Road home (SE11) was the setting for the most productive period of William Blake's life (Songs of Experience, The Marriage of Heaven and Hell). Now eight contemporary artists pay tribute to his superlative and iconic oeuvre in a fascinating, diverse and multi-faceted touring show. At the Museum of Garden History; until 4 September.

PETER BLAKE: ALPHABET

The Pop Art superstar behind the Beatles' visually extravagant Sgt Pepper album cover uses popular ephemera to produce this eclectic and captivating touring exhibition, curated by the Hayward. It consists of 26 of his screen prints, from the iconic K for King (Elvis) to the playfully simplistic G for Girl (right). Go to see the elevation of fleeting relics of popular culture; this is a must-see. Check out hayward.org.uk for dates.

PICTURE PERFECT

All the Blakes – William, Quentin and Peter – plus some hot poolside action rise

magazine

June 2005